DAILY GAZETTE.

The Income Tax—How it is to be Assessed.

WASHINGTON, April 15, 1863.

The commissioner of internal revenue has just issued the following regulations for the assessment of income tax:

The assessor and assistant assessor of each collection district, will assess the income tax on the last day of May next upon every person residing within the district liable thereto. Each person will be required to return his total income, so far as pertaining to the sources from which it is derived, as to enable the assistant assessor to decide what deductions shall be made therefrom. Persons whose income does not exceed $10,000, and who reside in the United States, will be subject to a duty of 3 per cent, on such portion thereof as is liable to taxation, provided, however, that upon the income derived from interest upon notes, bonds, or other securities of the United States, a duty of 12 per cent. will be levied.

Persons whose income exceeds $10,000 will be subject to a duty of 5 per cent, on the portion thereof subject to taxation, provided, however, that upon the income derived from interest upon notes, bonds, or other securities of the United States, a duty of 12 per cent. will be levied. Citizens of the United States, residing abroad and not in the employment of the United States, will be subject to a duty of 5 per cent, on the income of any property, securities, or stocks owned in the United States and not exempted from the income tax; provided, however, that upon the income derived from the interest upon notes, bonds, or other securities of the United States a duty of 12 per cent. will be levied.

Every farmer or planter will be required to make returns of the value of the produce of his farm or plantation, without deducting for the labor or services of himself and family, or for any proportion of such produce consumed by himself or family. The following deductions will be made from the aggregate income of each person, or the tax assessed upon the remainder, viz: State and local taxes assessed in the calendar year preceding this assessment, to wit: from January 1, 1862, to December 31, 1862, inclusive; salaries of officers or payments to persons in the service or employment of the United States, from which a deduction of 3 per cent, has been made by the disbursing officer of the government; interest or dividends of stock, capital or deposits in any bank, trust company or savings institution, insurance, bridge, express, steamboat, ferryboat, railroad company, or corporation, from which interest or dividends or duty or 3 per cent, shall have been deducted by the officers of such companies, corporations or association.

Interest from any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any railroad company or other corporation, from which a duty of 3 per cent, shall have been deducted by the officers of such company or corporation, and receipts derived from advertisements on which a duty shall have been assessed and paid; also, the sum of $600, except in those cases where the whole or any part of said $600 shall have been deducted from the salaries or pay of officers, or persons in the service or employment of the United States; the amount actually paid for the rent of every dwelling house or estate which is the residence of the person assessed; and the amount paid by any farmer or planter for hired labor and necessary repairs upon his farm or plantation, including the subsistence of the laborers.

The Daily Gazette. City of Janesville. Tuesday Evening, April 21, 1863. Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet— Where breathes the foe but falls before us? With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

By the foreign intelligence received to-day, we learn that the British government has stopped one of the piratical vessels building at Liverpool for the rebels, from going to sea; but in order, we suppose, to be entire neutral between "the two belligerent powers," they permit another Confederate vessel of war to depart from Greenock, to prey upon American commerce. If they could prevent one of these vessels from leaving, why not both? The subterfuge of the British ministry that they want proof of what everybody knows to be true, will not do. The pretext is too flimsy. The time will come when England will rue her unfriendly conduct towards the American republic. It will not be forgotten in ten generations.

Destitution at the South.

We publish, to-day, another batch of letters from soldiers in the 22d regiment, who recently made a seventeen day's trip through the south. The uniform testimony of these letters goes to prove that the rebels are in a state of great destitution. The reports of these eye witnesses of the condition of the south, together with others from different quarters of like import, satisfies us that the rebellion cannot hold out much longer for want of food. If they can be pressed to the well before another crop is matured, they will be subdued.

There is another point in these letters which relates to the cruel treatment received by the federal prisoners. It may be that other testimony on this subject has not been entirely convincing but those who know these men in this vicinity, must be satisfied that they tell the truth, and that the statements of brutal treatment on the part of rebels toward their prisoners are well founded.

Cothren's maj. on these returns, 4768.

The Madison Journal, of yesterday afternoon, says—"The officials from Buffalo, Jackson, Lafayette, Pepin, Clark, Eau Claire, Chippewa, Polk, Adams and Dunn, were received by this afternoon's mail. The net gains for Dixon amount to 790."

SOLDIER'S VOTE.—At the last report, 9336 votes had been returned for Dixon and 1758 for Cothren. Dixon's majority 7580.

THE IRON BRIGADE.—A private letter from Belle Plais, Va., 13th inst., (says the Madison Journal), states that the Iron Brigade were under orders to be ready to march at 12 p. m., same day, and all were busy in preparation.

MINERAL RICHES OF NEW MEXICO.—Additional specimens of valuable minerals have been received at the general land office from New Mexico. Recent reports from there bring glowing accounts of the discovery of valuable gold mines on the Gila river, which have evidently never been known before, even by the natives.

A planter disguised as a negro, having his face and hands blacked, was lately discovered attending church at Hilton Head, by one of his former slaves, who informed the guard, and he was arrested. It is thought there are many such spies about the camp.

SOLDIER'S SUFFRAGE IN NEW YORK.—The New York legislature has a bill before it to allow the soldiers of that state to vote. Gov. Seymour, who over his election to the disfranchisement of the soldiers from that state, is of course violently exercised on the subject. Unable to wait until the bill passes, he violates all the rules of executive propriety, and has sent in a message to the assembly that such a measure is, in his opinion, "unconstitutional."

From the 2nd Regiment.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 16, 1863.

DEAR FATHER, MOTHER AND BROTHER:— This finds me, or what little there is left of me, well, and I will take this the first opportunity I have had to write you a line. It would take many pages to give you any kind of an account of what I have passed through since the morning of the 25th of March, when I was taken prisoner, up to last Tuesday noon, the 4th inst., when I arrived at this place. When I got here I was nothing but skin and bones and filthy, the latter predominating; but yesterday I got a chance to wash, and have now got a new suit of clothes, from socks to cap. To-day I succeeded in getting a sheet of paper and an envelope, and I will write. I am very anxious about you; I hope you are all well. I never dreamed I could stand what I have. I marched three days and three nights on about four ounces of corn meal. I don't think, during the 17 days I was in the hands of the rebels, that I had three pounds of food. I lost 18 pounds of flesh in that time. I hope to get a chance to go home after awhile, and then I will tell you all. I can't begin to write it. This sheet would not hold one day's experience. If I had money I could soon far up home—oysters are only 25 cents a bushel, and everything as cheap, but we have no money. I chanced to have enough to fill my stomach with oysters, and I soon did it, you can bet. I think we shall leave here in a few days. I hope so; it is so aggravating to remain here in a land of plenty and have no money. The boys from Janesville are all well. I suppose you have heard of the famous Libby Prison in Richmond. I was two days and two nights incarcerated there.

We can't tell where we shall be sent to, but think to Camp Chase; and if I can get a furlough I will take one. I want to see you all a few days, and then I am ready to fight those villainous rebels to the death. I thought I despised them at first, but since I have been in their power and suffered so much, I know just how to hate them. I want to get a chance to guard rebel prisoners before I die. I can remember then how they drove me in front of a revolver through water up to my neck, and how I had to run for three hours, or be shot dead if I stopped. But I hope to get a chance to tell you all. Your boy,

E. H. PULLAN.

ANNAPOLIS, April 15, 1863.

Dear Mother:—This is the first chance to inform you that I am well. I was captured, as you have heard, on the 25th ult. We have had a dreadful time, but I would not take $1,000 for my trip now. We arrived here to-day. A part of the regiment has been here five days. We were delayed by having a poor engine on our train.

We all got stripped of everything but our dress suit, and that is in a terrible plight, but most of us have drawn new, and the rest will in the morning. I fooled the sentinels and kept my overcoat, but the rest I lost. Our company has as yet lost but one man by the trip. I have lots to tell you, but no time nor means. I begged this paper and envelope of the quartermaster, as I have spent every cent. When I am exchanged I will make some fellow's heart ache for the ill-treatment I have received.

I am somewhat wiser in the war question than I was a month ago. I have seen the elephant, and do not need to take another's word for it now. The war will close in six months if we hold what we have and take no more. Five thousand troops properly equipped and mounted can clean Tennessee in two months. Starvation is the first thing that meets you at any point in the south. There were three bread riots in Richmond within five days previous to our departure, and the present crop is very poor and backward. Most every private in the southern army, when questioned closely, wants the thing stopped at once and in any way we see fit.

I do not know that you can read this, but I have sold pen and ink long ere this for bread. I cannot express the hatred I have for the rebels above a Hottentot's rank; and should God permit me to meet them in battle again I shall give no quarters to an officer.

Mother, it was not my wish to surrender at Breutwood, and I cursed the man who did it on the spot, and at the time, but he will not do it again I know, for he knows that we would rather die than surrender.

My love to the dear ones at home, and remember me to my friends.

Do not answer this till you know my location, for we shall not stay here, and God only knows our destination. I hope to get a chance to go home awhile, but cannot tell. Good night, mother.

CLARON I. MILTIMORE.

ON BOARD A THUNDER BOLT (Sloop of War), JAMES RIVER, April 20, 1863.

MY DEAR PARENTS:—I know your bosoms have been racked with suspense for almost two long weeks, ever since you heard of the gobbling up of the 22d regiment at Brentwood. I write to your relief the first opportunity.

I am in better health now than I was the morning we were captured. I suppose that you have heard all the particulars of the affair long before this time, and if you have not I fear that I should not be able to give you a very connected account of it in my present situation, as I am in a large room with three hundred men chatting around me. Wait until I get home—which I desire as quickly as possible; then I can talk it all out straight. We have seen hardships enough within the past fourteen days to make a young man old.

I am now a paroled prisoner. I want to get my health and strength and then get exchanged as soon as may be, and then I am ready for the "miserable sneaking whelps." I will try and give you a sketch of our tramp from Brentwood here—After we were captured, in the morning, we struck off towards the west into the woods and went across lots and every other way, half the time on the double quick.

• We had the surprise.

We crossed the Big Harpeth (quite a creek) about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. They rested us about half an hour and then marched on all night and the next day with nothing to eat until towards night we halted and they gave us a little piece of corn bread and bacon. After a short rest they started us again and pushed on nine miles further to Duck river, which we crossed by means of a ferry boat. About one-fourth of a mile from the river we camped for the night. The next day we reached Columbia and were lodged in the court house, got nothing to eat that night. Next day we got a little corn bread and mule beef. The next day we were paroled and got a little more corn bread and beef. We left the court house Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, marched nine miles and camped in the woods. The next day we pushed through to Farmington; about a mile from this place we struck the pike and camped in a cedar grove just out of the town—Through the kindness of a Union woman I got a cup of milk and some warm corn bread for supper. The next morning we started at sunrise and tramped through to Shelbyville and then on two miles further and camped again in the Cedars. The next day we pushed on to the Tullahoma and camped just out of the city. The next morning we were marched up to the provost marshal's, where they took our overcoats and blankets away from us. We were then put aboard the cars and were off for Chattanooga. We came through safely to Richmond, Va., yesterday morning and were lodged in the far famed Libby Prison. Here we were paroled again. This morning we were put on to the cars for City Point, where we arrived about 10 o'clock and came on board this ship. And here I am, feeling thankful to the bottom of my heart to a kind Providence that has thus far brought me safely through all dangers. Now I must close for the present. Where I shall mail this, or when, I do not know. Give my love to all. Your loving son,

W. G. POPE.

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, April 20.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—Captain Keeler, provost marshal of this place, with one hundred men of the 14th Iowa, left on a special train for Anna, to arrest the parties that rescued the deserters from Thompson. His arrival it seems was anticipated, for on his arrival he was only able to secure two horses in the whole neighborhood. An armed force of about 150, left about an hour before his arrival. He has succeeded in capturing the lieutenant of the company. He also arrested a number of sympathizers with them, and supposed to be connected with the rescue of the deserters.

He also arrested a deserter from the 29th Illinois regiment, named Jefferson Miller.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—Evening Express here make the following announcement: We are glad to be able to state, upon the best authority, that the Monitors are uninjured; that the demonstration against the rebel batteries in Charleston harbor is not satisfactory to the government; that upon investigation, the latter is satisfied that, had the programme agreed upon been carried out, the obstructions in the harbor would have been removed, the rebel batteries reduced, and the city captured.

CINCINNATI, April 20.

Gen. Burnside approves the order issued by Gen. Carrington for the arrest of members of the K. K. G., on the ground that they are enemies of the government. He also favors the arrest of persons, male and female, wearing battered emblems. Arrests are now being made, and examples will be made.

MEMPHIS, April 20.

Special to the Chicago Tribune.—Thomas H. Yentman, special agent of the treasury department for Memphis, has received the appointment of agent for the collection of abandoned property in the district.

The Crescent City has arrived, bringing up the pilot John Taylor of the transport Henry Clay. He reports that on Thursday evening seven gunboats, one ram (the one taken from the Confederates some time since) and three transports left the vicinity of Vicksburg to run the blockade. All went well till fully two-thirds of the way down, when the hills back of the Vicksburg batteries were lit up with a number of fires, firing the country for miles. The Forest Queen, one of the transports, at once returned. The Henry Clay was compelled to stop. As soon as she was still, several shots struck her, some below the water line, others passing clear through her. The captain called to the pilot to come down, saying she was sinking. Before he got to the deck, he saw all hands on board a flat boat, which was the last he saw of them, and believes they were all lost. The pilot floated on a plank nine miles and was picked up nearly opposite Warrenton by some federal soldiers. The Forest Queen was considerably damaged, having her steam drum shot away. She was taken in tow by a gunboat.

The flagship Benton received a shot in her port bow, killing one man and wounding others. All of them got through except the Henry Clay. When the Crescent City left the mouth of the cut-off, heavy firing was heard in the vicinity of Warrenton, supposed to be the gunboats shelling the batteries at that point.

The gunboats below the Vicksburg batteries now number eleven, including three under Admiral Farragut.

The government is now occupying and running trains over the Memphis & Ohio railroad.

FORT MONROE, April 20.

Heavy firing has been going on for the last 24 hours on the Nansemond river, occasioned by our gunboats shelling out the rebels, who are attempting to plant batteries at different points on the river. Last night our gunboats, with the 89th New York and the 8th Connecticut regiments, captured a rebel battery of six pieces of artillery, together with 200 prisoners.

New York, April 20.

By arrival of the transport Ellen S. Terry, we have advices from Newbern to the 10th.

Gen. Foster ran the rebel batteries in broad day light. His pilot was killed at the wheel. A negro deck hand was wounded. Over 200 shot and shell were fired at his vessel, besides volleys of muskets and small arms. Sixteen cannon shot took effect in the steamer.

Reinforcements at Washington consists of the 8th Rhode Island.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20.

A leader in the Atlanta Intelligencer of the 17th inst., says that Rosecrans is being reinforced by Grant, and that the great battle in Tennessee will come off within the next 60 days. The Savannah News says that Gov. Brown is responsible for the bread riots at Greenboro and Denbow, North Carolina.

The Charleston Mercury of the 16th, says that on the 14th only eight vessels remained outside the bar. It blew a gale all day. The guns from the Keokuk have been recovered. One entire party of the Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer is occupied with an account of the proceedings of the copperhead meeting of the 22d ult., in Hamilton, Ohio, copied from the Enquirer. The speeches of Vallandigham, Voorhes and McKinney are introduced with a startling heading, and great flourish of trumpets.

The bill to compel the planting of provision crops has been lost in the Georgia legislature. A resolution was passed that a bill should be introduced levying a tithe or one-tenth of all the provisions in the state, for the benefit of the public service. The bill taxing those who refuse to take the Confederate oath, fifty per cent of the amount required, was lost.

The following telegrams appear in the Intelligencer:

Jackson, April 15.—A considerable federal force is at Greenville, Miss.

Chattanooga, April 15.—Mail boats between Louisville and Cincinnati have been pressed to carry Grant's army to Tennessee. All is quiet in the vicinity of Tullahoma. Franklin's Yankee division has left the Potomac for Tennessee.

New York, April 15.

The Herald's letter from Morehead City announces that Gen. Foster succeeded in passing the rebel blockade in the steamer Escort, with the loss of the pilot killed and several wounded. The Escort was ridiculed by at least forty shots.

Gen. Foster arrived at Newbern on the night of the 16th and was joyfully received. Gen. Naglee is in Newbern.

CAIRO, April 20.

Special to the Chicago Evening Journal.—The steamer Mary Forsyth arrived this noon from Memphis. Nothing new from below. All matter from that quarter is certainly contraband at present.

Your correspondent "M" has been released at Memphis, and will be up in a few days.

What news we have from below is very encouraging.

The Forsyth brought up seven hundred bales of cotton from Memphis for St. Louis.

CINCINNATI, April 20.

Army officers here predict highly important events on the Potomac. Hooker's army have left their camping ground on the Rappahannock. A battle in that direction is promised immediately.

It is stated that Gen. Burnside has expressed the opinion that the rebellion will end within the next nine months, and that no European intervention will take place. This conclusion is believed to be based on knowledge of contemplated operations now commenced.

A company of 113 negroes has been raised in this state for Fred Douglas's regiment, now raising in Massachusetts. This city has furnished 20 recruits.

Gov. Tod has appointed the examining surgeons for Ohio, who have received their instructions from Washington as to releases from the conscription. Physically disabled persons are exempt.

Numerous generals are in this city, with instructions to report to Gen. Burnside. Among them are Hartuff, Wood, Gilman, and others.

Nearly 2,000 deserters have passed through this city during the past week to join their regiments.

Secretary Stanton has sent West instructions that claims of turnpike and bridge companies for toll on government account shall be settled by paying fifty per cent, upon the amount of legal toll proved by satisfactory evidence.

Another group of fifty refugees passed through Cincinnati yesterday for Illinois, where they design to settle.

New York, April 19.

A Hilton Head letter contains the following items:

"A detachment of troops was left on Folly Island to co-operate with the fleet in Stono Inlet, and prevent the construction of new rebel batteries, and a similar force was left in Edisto Inlet for that purpose."

"Captain Worden is obliged to return north, on account of ill health, and Commander Fairfax now commands the Monitor."

"The barrels and hulls of the Monitors are unsanctioned. In no instance is the armor perforated. The sum total of the injuries is the simple riddling of the smokestacks. The fleet, with this exception, is ready for active service."

"Deserters from Savannah state that Fort Sumter was breached in several places, and many rebel gunners put hors du combat. At one time, General Ripley telegraphed that there was a possibility of our fleet forcing the obstructions. This created a panic in Charleston, and many citizens and soldiers ran away from the city, during the reach of the Yankee shells. During the engagement, the rebel forces were under arms, anxiously watching points from which they expected Union troops to emerge. There are said to have been 20,000 rebel troops on James Island alone, and twenty-three earth fortifications on James, John's and Morris Islands."

WASHINGTON, April 19.

All the civilians lately released from southern prisons, and sent north on their parole, have been exchanged.

It is understood the case of the steamer Peterhoff is to be left to the jurisdiction of the court now having it in charge, without intervention from Washington.

General Shields was, several weeks ago, ordered to report to General Wright for service in the department of the Pacific.

Governor Johnson, having nearly completed the official business which brought him hither, will soon return to Tennessee.

Hon. Robert J. Walker has gone to Europe, partly in behalf of the Quicksilver Mining Company, to assert its claim in a suit against Barron and Forbes, who represent the company now in possession of the mines. He also will act as agent of the government, for the purpose of effecting arrangements to secure the uniform weights and measures of coin, so far as to be equal in weights and measures between the United States and Great Britain, and thus equalize exchanges for the convenience of commerce, as recommended in the annual report of the secretary of the treasury.

To-day's Report.

[Report Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

New York, April 21.

The steamer City of Baltimore, from Liverpool 8th and Queenstown 9th, arrived this morning. The new gunboat Alexander, built by Miller & Co. Liverpool, recently launched, was seized in one of the Liverpool docks, Sunday 6th, by custom authorities, on suspicion of being intended for the rebels. The matter will be fully investigated before any proceeding will be taken beyond the detention of the vessel. The London Star considers the event an exceedingly good omen, and demands the prosecution of the builders.

The correspondence between the owners of the Peterhoff and the foreign officer is published. Russell says the examination of the papers having satisfied the government that there was no prima facie ground of capture, and that the seizure was wholly unjust, they have instructed Lord Lyons to make an immediate representation of the circumstances to the Washington government, and if no legal ground for the capture is alleged, to press for the release of the vessel and cargo, with compensation, without the delay of a prize court, but if any legal ground of capture be alleged, this case, like others, must follow the ordinary course.

It is reported that two well known American merchants had arrived at London to dispose of two millions sterling at 6 per cent. of United States bonds, with part of the proceeds to buy up vessels building in England for the Confederates; it is also reported that they were authorized to negotiate a loan of ten to twenty millions sterling. The Confederate loan touched three per cent. discount, but rallied to one and a half. The American consul at Hamburg has reported to attest the signature to a notarial document, because the names of Schröder & Co., who negotiated the Confederate loan, appeared in the document. The Union emancipation society, at Manchester, held a meeting to protest against the building of war ships for the rebels, adopted a memorial calling upon the government to vindicate the honor of England by stopping such proceedings.

Bourse 69 7/8. The Polish insurrection is reported increasing in various directions. Sundry conflicts are reported with various successes. It is asserted that France, England and Austria came to an understanding and sent separate notes to Russia, identical in sense, but avoiding anything like a resource. At St. Petersburg, an attempt was made to buy up vessels of the maintenance of the integrity of the Empire at all cost.

LIVERPOOL, April 8.

Cotton firmer, at last week's prices. Breadstuffs—flour dull but steady. Wheat inactive and in some cases prices barely maintained, red winter 92 1/2 5d, white western 10 10 1/2 3d. Corn quiet, rather easier, mixed 28 1/2 5d, white 29 6 1/2 5d. Pork quiet but steady. Lard firm.

Later, via Queenstown.

Another rebel privateer, called the Japan or Virginia, sailed from Greenock notwithstanding official efforts to prevent her. Cotton is quiet and unchanged. Breadstuffs dull, tendency downward. Provisions flat.

LONDON, April 9.

Erie shares 47 3/4. Illinois 42 1/2 discount.

Later, via Queenstown.

The Confederate loan advanced 3 per cent, yesterday, on advices from Liverpool and Manchester.

The Times has an article to the effect that California rings with preparations for offensive and defensive war against England, probably under the inspiration of Mr. Seward for the capture of British Columbia. It says the federal government are building three monitors for California uses, and exporting thirteen large quantities of shells and gunpowder.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, April 20.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 43.—The following officers are honorably discharged: Lieut. Benj. F. Hancock, 19th Illinois; Col. L. Cutler, 6th Wisconsin; Lieut. Martin Redman, 2d Wisconsin; Lieut. Charles E. Stringer, 2d Wisconsin; Lieut. Richard Carter, 6th Wisconsin.

CAIRO, April 20.

Special to Chicago Times.—Capt. W. B. Keeler, of the 35th Iowa regiment, provost marshal of Cairo, proceeded with 100 men from the 14th Iowa on a special train to Jonesboro, this morning, to arrest deserters and those who have interested themselves in their concealment, and who resisted the provost marshal's aids a few days ago, when they endeavored to make arrests of Anna. The troops were provided with 40 rounds of ammunition, in case any demonstrations against them be attempted. It was reported that the marshal and troops were coming, and about 150 of the citizens seized all the horses they could find and hurried away 11 persons, including one deserter from the 29th Illinois, named Jefferson, who was arrested and brought to this city this evening. The prisoners are confined in the St. Charles hotel under strong guard.

MURFREESBORO, April 20.

Special to the Chicago Times.—General Hobson at Murfreesboro telegraphs that his forces, 1200 strong, attacked the enemy near Celina, Saturday, killing seven. On Sunday they attacked the town, killed 30, and routed the enemy, estimated at 1200. Wheeler, with a strong force, is reported to be in the vicinity of Lavergne, threatening that post. Col. Estes' patrol skirmished with the enemy, 8 miles from Lavergne, east of Stone river.

SECOND DISPATCH.

MURFREESBORO, April 20.

A telegram from General Hubert, at Memphis, reports that Gen. Dodge, commanding at Corinth, attacked the enemy and drove them from Bear creek to Caney creek, with heavy loss. Our loss is one hundred killed and wounded. We had one piece of artillery disabled, but it was saved. The enemy have been largely reinforced by infantry at Tusculum.

The Atlanta, Ga., Intelligencer of the 17th, boastfully calls upon the federals to attack whenever they please, in whatever force.

FORT MONROE, April 19.

Last evening the steamer Peterhoff arrived from Charleston. The Monitors were all lying near the bar none of them having left, as reported.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

New York, April 21.

Flour 5 1/2 0 lower and dull, 6 7/8 0 3/4, 3/4 extra state. Wheat dull and heavy, 1 3/4 1/2 63 Chicago spring, 1 5/8 1/2 72 winter. Corn heavy and about 1/2 lower, 7 1/2 80 for sound. Oats 90 1/2 87 1/2. Pork quiet. Whisket dull, 44 1/2 44 1/2.

A Yorktown letter of the 16th says our loss on the 11th at Williamsburg was one wounded and five prisoners. Gen. Wise, with 3,000 rebels, occupied Williamsburg yesterday. Gen. Keyes sent a flag of truce with orders for citizens to leave, as he was about to shell the city.

Port Annapolis has been reinforced with heavy guns, and gunboats have gone up York river. Another up James river each side of the town.

WASHINGTON, April 20.

Rebel reports of the repulse of Generals Hooker and Stoneman are pure fabrications.

PORTLAND, April 21.

The steamship Java, Liverpool 9th, and Londonderry 10th, arrived this morning with one day's later news. The Polish insurrection is still spreading. Cotton declined 1/4 d. Breadstuffs quiet. Corn downward tendency. Provisions flat.

New York, April 21.

Stocks lower and dull, closed firmer. Gold 46 1/2.

The steamer George Washington arrived from New Orleans the 13th. The news is unimportant. Movements were in progress against the rebels on Boyon Techa. Gen. Banks is in the field at the head of Grover's, Emory's and Weitzel's corps. Weitzel's force crossed Berwick Bay and advanced to Pattersonville, five miles up the river. Emory's and Weitzel's forces are steadily advancing. Weitzel was reinforced Sunday by Emory's division. Grover's forces embarked at Braeshaer City, proceeded into Grand Lake to Indian Bend, above Wilkint. The movement, if successful, would bring the rebels within two miles. They the enemy nearly 8000. It was reported that the rebels on the 13th, that Weitzel was within six miles of Franklin. It was also rumored that Gen. Grant had appeared with a strong force up Red River. On the 9th Col. Sela with 180 colored troops went to Passaic, Miss., captured the place, and was subsequently attacked by 300 rebel cavalry and a company of infantry; twenty rebels were killed and a large number wounded. The rebels retreated, leaving their colors behind. The enemy brought down large reinforcements, and Daniels returned to Ship Island.

WINTER WHEAT.—The mild and unusual open winter has been death on winter wheat. The blanket of snow for its covering and protection which it ought to have had, it did not get, and the consequence is that it has badly winter-killed in this vicinity. We have looked at several fields lately that are by no means promising, although plenty of wet weather and other favorable conditions may do much for them yet. In this country, at least, there will not be an average crop of winter wheat.—Home League.

A SAD CASE.—A soldier passed through here last evening, on route for Michigan, having in charge his three children, who had been rendered motherless under circumstances the most painful. The wife, with her children, had made a visit to the camp for the purpose of seeing her husband. A few days after her arrival, he was handing his rifle in her presence, when it accidentally went off, the contents entering a vital part of the wife, causing death in a short time. He obtained a furlough for the purpose of accompanying his children to the place where his wife was killed, but it was once a peaceful and happy, but now, alas! a desolate and sorrowful home.—Cleveland Leader, 9th.

"During the late discussion on American affairs in the house of commons, Mr. Laird, M. P., the builder of the Alabama, 'took a hand in,' and boldly acknowledged and justified his conduct, as the patron and abettor of rebel pirates. And yet, in the face of this scandalous avowal, Lord Palmerston had the assurance to claim that England had remained 'strictly neutral.'"

DIED.

Of cerebral fever, at Clinton, Friday morning, April 18th, 1863, Little BOLLEH, son of L. M. and Malice L. Lamm, aged 6 months and 4 days.

We had a gun brought to us a source of hope and joy, and priceless was the moral gift, a lovely babe, a girl child.

There's a little grave on yonder hill Where buried hopes now lie, For there in lasting slumber sleeps Our lovely baby boy. (COW.)
